

WYCOMBE Wanderers, revitalised after their handsome 3-0 win at Slough on New Year's Eve, face another stern test tomorrow (Saturday) when they travel to Tooting and Mitcham.

The Blues have one injury problem. Dylan Evans injured his back at Slough and was having treatment this week. Derek Harris, substitute at Wexham Park, will take his place if necessary, otherwise manager John Reardon is likely to name the same team.

Wanderers will be hoping to capitalise on Tooting's lack of form recently. Although they beat Epsom and Ewell from Division 2, 3-1 at Sandy Lane in the Surrey Senior Cup on Saturday, they have been struggling to produce their best football.

Two most disappointing results were their 2-1 FA Cup exit at the hands of Northampton and a 3-0 home defeat in the league by Enfield, who seem uncatchable at the top.

Injuries have a large part in Tooting's poor results with Alan Berrecloth, Steve Grubb, Des Dennis and Trevor Ford all out of action recently. Grubb, one of the biggest centre halves in the league, is definitely out of tomorrow's side due to a cartilage operation.

Tooting have also lost Nick Glover, sold to Enfield, but Peter McGillicuddy stands by to make his debut for the club having signed from Hayes recently. Another new player in the squad is Bob Pittaway, a defender who joined from Southern League Dartford.

Wycombe have special reason to win tomorrow as Tooting inflicted a 2-0 defeat at Loakes Park back in September with goals from Dave Juneman and Grubb.

TRAIN tickets for Wycombe's trip to Bridgend in the FA Trophy on January 14 are on sale at the club on Sunday from 10 am until noon, and also on Tuesday and Thursday from 7-9 p.m.
